Speakers License Granted Hollins By Methodists

A local preacher's license was granted Wayne Hollins by the First Methodist Church of Torrance by a unanimous vote of the congregation at the Annual Conference Sunday, May 16. In the Methodist Church a preacher's license is granted by the local church to a prospective minister. In this area he is then placed under the guidance of the Southern-Arizona Conference in which he will continue through his schooling. Wayne has lived in Torrance for two years, having moved here from Moline, Illinois. At present, he is employed as a draftsman engineer at North American. He has held the office of president of his youth groups for four years, sings in the church choir, and teaches a church school class of sixth graders. Before entering college in September, he will marry Miss Virginia Buchanan of this city. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Hollins, 21131 Brighton.

23 Confirmed In Local Rites

Last Sunday at 8 p. m., nineteen adults and four children were confirmed at St. Andrews Episcopal church, 1432 Enggracia, with the Right Reverend Bishop William P. Remington, retired suffragan bishop officiating.

Peter Barker, Frank Willson, Don Caulson, James Wier, Irving Caulkins, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cicero, Mr. and Mrs. John Jones Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flemming and Mr. and Mrs. George Wilmon.

The children were Julia and Allen Brisack, and Brenda and Terrance Fryback.

A reception followed the ceremony.

Color Film Slated At Baptist Church

A color film entitled "Gateway to Asia" will be shown May 26 at 7:30 p. m. at First Baptist Church, 2118 Carson, it was announced by Rev. C. Miles Northrup, pastor. The film, produced by the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, gives an up-to-date account of missionary work in Hong Kong.

Carnival Slated At Nativity School

The annual spring carnival sponsored by the Nativity School Mothers Club will open at noon, May 26, on the school grounds, 2371 W. Carson street. Numerous games and refreshments will be featured along with an all-cartoon movie to be shown continuously throughout the afternoon and evening. There is no admission charge and the public is welcome. Climaxing the event, the

HATS OFF

"Our Hats Are Off to You," was the theme of a floral decoration in honor of incoming and outgoing officers of Torrance Council on the table of Perry's P-TA at the installation breakfast last week. The feather in the hat was in honor of Mrs. W. A. Wright, new Council president, who is a Perry P-TA member.

King and Queen of the Carnival will be crowned about 8 p. m. following which a Schwinn Traveler bicycle and a collie pup will be given away.

SERMON

"Man's Birthday is Freedom" titles the sermon for this Sunday at the Church of Religious Science, according to Rev. Earl D. Barnum, minister.

Services at Church of Religious Science are held Sunday at 10:45 a. m. in the Masonic Temple, Ruby street at Catalina, Redondo Beach.

The Children's Church will have a parent-teachers meeting Sunday at 3 p. m. in the classroom. Parents are urged to attend.
